Dear Mr. Porter:

Congratulations! Advocates in Manpower Management, Inc. has been selected as the winner of the Goddard Space Flight Center Mentor-Protégé Agreement of the Year. Based on this award, Advocates in Manpower Management, Inc. is now eligible to be chosen as the (FY) 2015 National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) Small Business Industry Awards (SBIA) Agency-level winner in the same category. The Agency's Office of Small Business Programs (OSBP) appreciates the ongoing efforts of companies like yours that work with NASA and makes significant contributions to the Agency's small business program.

The FY 2015 Goddard Space Flight Center SBIA company presentations will occur at an appropriate event coordinated by the center. To learn more about the FY 2015 SBIA Center-level awards presentations, please contact the center that awarded your company with this recognition. The FY 2015 Agency-Level SBIA winners will be announced in a forthcoming press release and the awards presentation will occur during the spring 2016 NASA Industry Forum on March 8, 2016 at NASA Headquarters. If your company would like to issue a press release about this FY 2015 SBIA Center-level award, please forward the draft to Ms. Tabisa Kalisa via email at Tabisa.T.Kalisa@nasa.gov with my office for review and approval prior to issuance.

As you may already know, as a FY 2015 SBIA Center-level winner, your company will also be highlighted in the awards compendium which provides an overview of the various work and projects that companies have completed in support of the Agency's mission. Your company will be provided with copies of the awards publication when it is published.

Again, congratulations and thank you for your support of the NASA Small Business Program.
